

Positive means the control had greater reproductive isolation at the end

